5.4 Violations by Directors

Grounds for discipline include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. Poor attendance at Board or General Membership Meetings, including missing meetings without notice;
- b. Failure to pay all compulsory and optional fees for TMAPS-fee-assessed courses;

Toronto Metropolitan Association of Part-time Students

Local 105 Canadian Federation of Students

By-laws – Amended: March 2023

- c. Just cause, theft, fraud, or embezzlement of funds;
- d. Failure to disclose a significant or obvious conflict of interest;
- e. Breach of confidentiality or privacy data collected from members;
- f. Misuse of TMAPS property, information or contracts/agreements;
- g. Failure to perform duties as specified by the By-Laws or Policy of TMAPS;
- h. Not completing and submitting reports to Membership Meetings;
- i. Any Violation of the Board of Directors Code of Ethics.

5.5 Disciplining Board Members

The procedures outlined below should be followed if a notice of violation is submitted:

- a. Notice of violation should be submitted in writing to either the President, or to the Vice-President Academic. If the type of violation alleged is not overly severe in nature, and it is the first notice of its kind, the matter should be discussed privately with Director in question and treated as a warning.
- b. If the notice of violation is deemed to be serious, has put the organisation at risk, is the result of fraud, theft, criminal activity, or is a repeat violation, it shall be brought before the Board either at the next meeting or a Board meeting that has provided no less than 48 hours' notice. In the event the violation was committed by the President whom is the Chair of the Board, the meeting shall be chaired by another Director. The Director accused of the violation should be given at least twenty four (24) hours' notice in advance of the Board meeting to discuss the matter.
- c. The member/s will be cautioned by the Chair that an alleged violation of the By-Laws or TMAPS policy has occurred.
- d. The Chair will seek the Board's opinion by allowing both the accused Director and their accuser to present evidence of such claim. Each Director should be given the right to speak. The Board Meeting will ensure that Directors while addressing their points do so without violating this policy. In emergency circumstances the Chair is empowered to act immediately to remove a member who poses an immediate threat either to him/herself, a Toronto Metropolitan Universitycommunity member, or to the Board.
- e. The Board will decide if a violation has indeed occurred. Should a significant majority of members present two-thirds (2/3) feel that a violation has occurred the member will be automatically censured for inappropriate conduct for a first offence. The Director may either accept that a violation has occurred, and withdraw, amend, adjust or apologise for their actions or deny the charge.
- f. The Board may impose whatever reasonable penalty it feels is appropriate given

Toronto Metropolitan Association of Part-time Students

Local 105 Canadian Federation of Students

By-laws – Amended: March 2023

the nature and degree of offence. Penalties may include suspension or impeachment. In the case of a second violation, a motion to impeach the member will be made at the next meeting.

- g. Any director removed from office by the TMAPS Board of Directors will be ineligible to hold any elected position within TMAPS. The Board Meeting may decide at any time by a significant (2/3rd) majority of the members present to reverse this decision.

5.6 Board Meetings

The Board of Directors must meet no less than three (3) times per academic session. Advance notice of at least forty-eight (48) hours must be provided to members. Proxies shall not be allowed.

5.7 Quorum for Board Meetings

Quorum for meetings is a majority of the Board of Directors present either in person, via telephone, or video conferencing.

5.8 Motions over Electronic-Mail

In the event that the Board of Directors is unable to meet in person, any Director may issue a Motion using electronic mail (email) using the email address of the Board of Directors for their consideration. A Mover and Secunder of the Motion must be included as part of the Motion. After two business days of the motion being sent, the Chair will call for a final vote via email if Directors have not yet responded. If the vote cannot be emailed back, a fax will suffice. Directors will have twenty-four hours to respond. No response by a Director will be deemed to be an abstention from the vote. Motions and votes will be ratified into the minutes of the next scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors.

5.9 Board of Directors Code of Ethics

All Directors must sign the Board of Directors Code of Ethics Declaration as a condition of ratification of their position on the Board. Any Director refusing to sign the Declaration shall not assume their position and shall be reported to the membership at the earliest General Membership Meeting or Emergency Meeting called for this purpose. In cases where the Code of Ethics has not been signed, no applicable honoraria shall be paid to this position for any period unless otherwise directed by the membership at the General Members Meeting.

It is TMAPS' desire that Directors of the Board reflect honesty and integrity that is beyond doubt and that is done in a manner that:

- a. Avoids conflict of interest;
- b. Protects confidential information, in accordance with the Freedom of Information

Toronto Metropolitan Association of Part-time Students

Local 105 Canadian Federation of Students

By-laws – Amended: March 2023

and Protection of Privacy Act;

- c. Complies with all applicable governmental laws, regulations, the Collective Agreement and rules;
- d. Adheres to good disclosure practices, in accordance with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

5.10 Conflicts of Interest

A conflict of interest arises when a member of the Board or any Committee of TMAPS has or could be seen to have an opportunity to use the authority, knowledge, or influence derived from her or his position to financially benefit the member or another person. Such situations include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. Participating as a Director, or in any other capacity as a manager in the management of a firm which is a supplier of materials or services to TMAPS;
- b. Having personal financial dealings with an individual or company whose business with TMAPS involves the member's sphere or responsibility;
- c. Participating in the hiring or contract review process affecting an immediate relative (i.e. a spouse, parent, in-law, sibling, child, or step-child).

Any member of the Board having an interest in any matter other than the interest of TMAPS whether or not it is in conflict, whether a pecuniary interest or otherwise, whether directly or indirectly, shall, if present at the meeting at which the matter is considered, declare such an interest. The Vice-President Academic (Secretary) shall record all such declarations.

Possible courses of action to be taken in the event that the presiding officer declares there is a conflict of interest include, but are not limited to:

- d. Requiring the individual to abstain from discussion on the issue;
- e. Requiring the individual to abstain from voting on the issue and requesting that that abstention be noted in the minutes;
- f. Asking that individual to excuse themselves from any meeting during which the conflict arises;
- g. Requiring the individual to withdraw from the activity or situation in which the conflict arises.

Board members who do not declare their interests and who are subsequently found to be in a conflict of interest situation, will have breached this Code of Ethics.

5.11 Confidentiality

In order to adhere to principles of integrity and privacy, to avoid breach of confidentiality,

Toronto Metropolitan Association of Part-time Students

Local 105 Canadian Federation of Students

By-laws – Amended: March 2023

Board members shall:

- a. Not disclose to any member of the public, either orally or in writing, any confidential information acquired by virtue of their position in TMAPS;
- b. Not use any confidential information acquired by virtue of their position at TMAPS for their personal and private financial benefit or for that of their friends or relatives;
- c. Not permit any unauthorised person to inspect or have access to any confidential documents or other information.

5.12 Compliance with Laws

Members, in the course of their position with TMAPS, shall comply with all applicable government laws, rules and regulations, including without limitation:

- a. TMAPS by-laws and policies;
- b. Ontario Corporations Act and Ontario Not For Profit Corporations Act;
- c. Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act;
- d. Ontario Human Rights Code;
- e. Accessibility for Ontarians With Disabilities Act;
- f. Ontario Occupational Health and Safety Act;
- g. Collective Agreements and all employment related laws and policies.

5.13 Director Conduct and Discipline

In addition to abiding by TMAPS' 'Workplace Violence and Harassment' policy, directors will under no circumstances:

- a. Use hateful language to express themselves at Board meetings;
- b. Harass, bully, extort, coerce or threaten any member of the Toronto Metropolitan University community including but not limited to the Board and Staff of TMAPS;
- c. Make threatening gestures or overtures;
- d. Make transphobic, homophobic, sexist, racist, ableist or any other discriminatory comments; slander, libel, malign or accuse another member of misconduct without presenting evidence of such allegations having occurred.

Toronto Metropolitan Association of Part-time Students

Local 105 Canadian Federation of Students

By-laws – Amended: March 2023

By-law VI: Committees

6.1 Committees

Committees shall report to the Board of Directors any progress or issues that the Committee has undertaken.

6.2 Committees of the Whole:

All TMAPS Directors and Members are entitled to full participation and voting rights in Committees of the Whole.

- a. By-laws and Policy Committee
- b. Campaigns and Equity Committee
- c. Events Committee

Committees of the whole may serve only as a reporting function and their decisions, actions, or recommendations may not legally or financially bind or commit TMAPS to any decisions unless empowered to do so by the Board of Directors and/or by a General Membership Meeting.

6.3 Committees of the Board of Directors:

Only TMAPS Directors and Staff Members (Non-Voting) may participate in Committees of the Board.

- a. Finance Committee
- b. Bursary Committee
- c. Joint Health and Safety Committee

Committees serve to execute the operations of the Board in a fashion that emphasises collaboration and member-input. Committees are permitted relative autonomy from the Board of Directors following the approval of their independent budget and strategy each year.

6.4 Ad-hoc Committees

Ad hoc committees may be established by the Board of Directors or the General Membership Meetings and must report at Board of Directors and General Membership meetings.

By-laws – Amended: March 2023

By-law VIII: Finances

8.1 Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of TMAPS is from May 01 to April 30 of the following year.

8.2 Bank

The Union must maintain its financial accounts, as decided by the Vice-President Services and Finance with the advice and consent of the Board of Directors, at a credit union or chartered bank.

8.3 Signing Officers

The President and Vice-President Services and Finance shall be designated as the signing officers for the Board of Directors of TMAPS. In the event that either one of the signing officers are absent or the position is vacant, the Vice-President Academic shall be deemed to be a second signing officer or alternate.

8.4 Financial Transactions

The Vice-President Services and Finance must approve all cheque requisitions and financial transactions. Two signatures shall be required on all cheques. Before the Vice-President Services approves any cheque requisition, or electronic fund transfer for an amount over $500, that was not explicitly budgeted for or directed by the Board of Directors to spend, the details of the expense must be circulated to all signing officers, and approved by a majority.

8.5 Audit

The Vice-President Services and Finance shall see that annual audited financial statements of TMAPS are prepared and presented to the Board of Directors and the General Membership Meeting within no more than eight (8) months of the end of the fiscal year. The annual audited financial statements of TMAPS will be published on TMAPS' website.

8.6 Reserve Fund

TMAPS must maintain a reserve fund equal to the basic minimum operating expenses of the organisation for eighteen (18) months to ensure the continuation of TMAPS in the event that it is prevented from obtaining or utilising member fees for any reason.

8.7 Bursaries and Awards

TMAPS shall establish a number of bursaries and/or awards as decided by the Board of Directors.

By-law IX: Elections

Elections to the Board of Directors occur during the Annual General Meeting of TMAPS, and a by-election may occur at a Special General Members' Meeting. Notice must be provided to members no less than fifteen (15) business days in advance of the meeting. Elections will be governed by the By-laws and the Elections policy of TMAPS.

9.1 Chief Returning Officer

The Board of Directors will appoint a Chief Returning Officer to coordinate and preside over the elections of the Board of Directors by the Membership. The Chief Returning Officer must defer to the TMAPS membership lists in all aspects of membership eligibility.

The Chief Returning Officer must:

- a. Not be a former or current Director of the Board;
- b. Declare no conflict of interest in overseeing the election process;
- c. Not be a TMAPS staff member;
- d. Establish rules and guidelines to administer the election in a manner that is fair and democratic.

9.2 Election of the Board of Directors

Board of Directors positions are filled by annual election, or by-election. Elected candidates may hold that position for the duration of that position's normal term ending May 1, and thereafter must transfer all rights to that position to the Director-elect except in the case the Director is re-elected to that position.

9.3 Board of Directors Candidates

To be an eligible candidate, one must:

- a. Be a Full Member and a Member in Good Standing; or
- b. Be an Executive member who has paid the full TMAPS fee during the fiscal year for at least one session, with the intention to enrol in the following fiscal year

9.4 Board of Directors Electors

To be eligible to vote for, or nominate a candidate, one must:

- a. Be a Full Member and a member in Good Standing;
- b. Be an Executive member who has paid the full TMAPS fee during the fiscal year for at least one session, with the intention to enrol in the following fiscal year;
- c. Be currently registered in a TMAPS-fee accessed course for the current term.

Toronto Metropolitan Association of Part-time Students

Local 105 Canadian Federation of Students

By-laws – Amended: March 2023

9.5 Nominations for Board of Director Candidates

Nominations must be submitted in writing to the Chief Returning Officer before the cut-off date, which must be no later than five (5) business days before the start of the election campaign period. Nominations require the signature of five (5) nominators who are Full members and Members in Good Standing and the signature of the candidate.

9.6 By-election

In the event that a position on the Board of Directors becomes vacant, a by-election can be held at the discretion of the Board of Directors following the conditions for the position stated in this by-law. In deciding whether or not to hold a by-election, the Board of Directors should consider timeframe concerns and the appropriate use of TMAPS resources.

Vacancies can be filled through an interim appointment by the Board of Directors. The interim appointee will hold office until the next General Meeting where the by-election process can occur if the Board deems it necessary considering the amount of time left in the term of office.

9.7 Voting Procedures

All candidates must be given a chance to make a statement for up to a maximum of seven (7) minutes at the Annual General Meeting or at the membership meeting where voting is to take place. Voting must be conducted by secret ballot, and each candidate is allowed one (1) scrutineer. In the case of a tie the CRO will administer a coin toss to determine the outcome of the election.

In the case of only one candidate running for a position, there will be a yes/no vote for this candidate.

9.8 Advanced Polls

There shall be advance voting for three (3) business days for at least four consecutive hours on each day, prior to the election at the Annual General Meeting. Advanced polling stations will be set up in at least three (3) designated buildings on the Toronto Metropolitan University campus one of which must be the Student Centre where the TMAPS Office is located.

Toronto Metropolitan Association of Part-time Students

Local 105 Canadian Federation of Students

By-laws – Amended: March 2023

By-law X: Referenda

From time to time the Continuing Education Students' Association of Toronto Metropolitan University (TMAPS) may wish to determine the opinion of its membership with respect to specific issues. Recognizing that the Board of Governors of Toronto Metropolitan University has ultimate authority over student fees at the University, this by-law is designed to govern the way in which TMAPS conducts referenda, whether concerning fees or otherwise, on the understanding that the University will recognize the validity of any TMAPS referenda conducted in accordance herewith and in particular will implement the results of any such referenda that concern TMAPS fees.

10.1 Proclamation of Referenda

- a. One or more members of TMAPS may require the Board of Directors to issue a proclamation of referendum, by submitting to the Board of Directors a completed petition in the form prescribed by TMAPS, containing the following:
 - i. A referendum question that complies with clause 10.2.c.;
 - ii. At least ten per cent of all current members of TMAPS, excluding those members who hold joint membership in the Toronto Metropolitan Students' Union (TMSU) or the Toronto Metropolitan Graduate Students' Union (TMGSU);
 - iii. The tentative location of the polling booths for the referendum.
- b. At the first meeting of the Board of Directors after receipt of a petition pursuant to clause 10.1.a the Board shall appoint members to a Referendum Committee consisting of three members of the Board who have had no previous involvement with the petition in question and no greater interest in the substantive issues to which it relates than does TMAPS' membership in general.
- c. The Board of Directors may issue a proclamation of referendum, consistent with the by-law herein, at any time following a two-thirds majority vote cast at a regular meeting of the Board.
- d. Sufficient notice of referenda shall be deemed to have been given by the posting of not less than 30 proclamations on or about Toronto Metropolitan University not less than 8.5"x11" in size, which shall include the following:
 - i. Notice of intent to conduct a referendum;
 - ii. The tentative date(s) and time(s) of voting for the referendum.

10.2 Referenda Question

- a. Before issuing the proclamation, the Board of Directors must approve the

Toronto Metropolitan Association of Part-time Students

Local 105 Canadian Federation of Students

By-laws – Amended: March 2023

referendum question in accordance with clause 10.2.c

- b. The Board of Directors may approve the question in the form submitted, amend the question and approve it as amended, or reject the question.
- c. A referendum question shall be positively worded, so that a vote of “yes” signifies agreement with the initiative proposed, and a vote of “no” signifies disagreement with it.

10.3 Referendum Committee

- a. Membership of the Referendum Committee shall be three members of the Board who have had no previous involvement with the petition in question and no greater interest in the substantive issues to which it relates than does TMAPS’ membership in general.
- b. The Board or its designate shall appoint a Chief Returning Officer and a Referendum Committee, who shall exercise and perform the duties specified herein and in TMAPS’ By-laws.
- c. The term of office of the Chief Returning Officer and Referendum Committee shall expire upon the completion of such duties.
- d. As soon as possible after the issuance of a proclamation, the Referendum Committee shall:
 - i. Inform the membership, by such means as the Referendum Committee;
 - ii. Determine the date(s) and time(s) of voting for the referendum, the location(s) of the polling booths and the general manner in which the referendum will be conducted;
 - iii. Appoint one deputy returning officer and one poll clerk for each poll declared.
- e. If a member of the Referendum Committee dies, resigns in writing, or is removed by the Board or individual authorised to make appointments to that officer’s position, the Board or individual, as the case may be, shall appoint another individual to that position.
- f. The Chief Returning Officer and the Referendum Committee shall:
 - i. Exercise general direction and supervision over the administrative conduct of the referendum and enforce compliance with this policy and the pertinent provisions of TMAPS’ by-laws;
 - ii. Issue such instructions as may be necessary to ensure effective execution of the provisions of this policy and the pertinent provisions of TMAPS’ by-laws;
 - iii. Exercise all other powers and perform all other duties assigned to their respective offices by this policy and TMAPS’ by-laws.

Toronto Metropolitan Association of Part-time Students

Local 105 Canadian Federation of Students

By-laws – Amended: March 2023

- g. The Chief Returning Officer may authorise any member of the Referendum Committee to exercise any of the powers and perform any of the duties assigned to the Chief Returning Officer by this policy or TMAPS' by-laws.

10.4 Advocating Committees

- a. If requested, the Referendum Committee shall register one committee authorised to promote the “yes” answer to a referendum question, and one committee authorised to promote the “no” answer, provided that the members of each committee shall be members of TMAPS unless otherwise agreed by the Referendum Committee.
- b. In order to participate in the referendum campaign, individuals must familiarise themselves with the referendum rules as outlined in this and any other relevant policies. Any person who wishes to campaign in the referendum may request and shall receive an orientation to the referendum by-law by the members of the Referendum Committee.
- c. An advocating committee may apply for registration by filing with the Referendum Committee, at any time during the referendum period, an application signed by the chief agent of the advocating committee setting out:
 - i. The full name of the committee;
 - ii. The name, address, email address and telephone number of the chief agent of the committee;
 - iii. The name, address, telephone number and title of each member of the committee.
- d. Each advocating committee shall:
 - i. Ensure that all campaigners are aware of and understand all relevant By-laws, referendum policies and rulings of the Referendum Committee;
 - ii. Ensure that all campaigners comply with all relevant By-laws, referendum policies and rulings of the Referendum Committee.
- e. The Referendum Committee shall determine the resources to be made available to each advocating committee in a particular referendum, and the Referendum Committee shall administer those resources in a fair and reasonable manner at the request of each such committee. No advocating committee shall invest resources in any aspect of a particular referendum other than those allocated to it by the Referendum Committee.
- f. The Referendum Committee shall maintain a registry of registered advocating committees.
- g. Where the position of chief agent of a registered advocating committee or of an

Toronto Metropolitan Association of Part-time Students

Local 105 Canadian Federation of Students

By-laws – Amended: March 2023

advocating committee that has applied for registration becomes vacant or the chief agent is unable to perform the duties of the position, the committee shall forthwith appoint a new chief agent and inform the Referendum Committee in writing of the name, address and telephone number of the new chief agent.

- h. No one other than a registered advocating committee shall advertise through any medium, or post or distribute any material, for the purpose of supporting or opposing a referendum question.
- i. No registered advocating committee shall advertise in any medium, or post or distribute any material, unless the advertisement or other material:
 - i. Identifies that committee and indicates that the advertisement is authorised by it;
 - ii. Has the documented, prior authorisation of the Referendum Committee.
- j. Advocating committees shall provide the Referendum Committee with a written description of the proposed campaign material. The Referendum Committee shall provide in confidence a written approval or refusal of campaign materials, and shall respond within either 12 hours or 4 working hours of receiving a completed request, whichever is greater.
- k. The Referendum Committee will not approve materials that are defamatory, potentially libellous or factually incorrect. No one, whether a member of a registered campaign committee or otherwise, shall disseminate information verbally, electronically or otherwise that is defamatory, potentially libellous or factually incorrect. Campaigners shall act reasonably, responsibly and in good faith.
- l. Further, no one, whether a member of a registered advocating committee or otherwise, shall:
 - i. Make any statement of fact either in support of or opposition to a referendum question, without evidence substantiating that statement of fact to the satisfaction of the Referendum Committee;
 - ii. Discuss any aspect of the referendum in a manner that the Referendum Committee considers to constitute harassment.
- m. Materials that have not received Committee approval cannot be distributed.
- n. Where the Referendum Committee determines that campaign materials which have not been approved by the Referendum Committee are being distributed, displayed or used by a campaign, then the Committee shall order the materials immediately withdrawn or removed and shall confiscate the materials from the campaign for a period of not less than 24 hours.
- o. The Referendum Committee may assign an additional penalty, which may include

Toronto Metropolitan Association of Part-time Students

Local 105 Canadian Federation of Students

By-laws – Amended: March 2023

destruction of the material or a restriction on campaigning provided that the penalty is balanced against the volume of the materials distributed or its effect and that no destruction shall take place until the appeal period is expired.

- p. The Referendum Committee will not approve materials that: cannot be removed at the conclusion of the campaign; materials that are likely to damage property including stickers and paint applied to building surfaces; or cannot be monitored for compliance with all relevant By-laws and referendum policies.
- q. During the referendum period, the Referendum Committee may, at its discretion, arrange public forums for the advocating committees to make oral presentations to the membership.
- r. No person shall, for the purpose of supporting or opposing a referendum question, violate any pertinent regulations contained in TMAPS' by-laws or this or any other policy issued pursuant thereto.

10.5 Polling Procedure

- a. Quorum is only required for a referendum concerning an external organisation where quorum shall be no less than ten percent (10%) of eligible voter membership.
- b. Each member of TMAPS, except those members who also hold membership in the Toronto Metropolitan Students' Union (TMSU) or the Toronto Metropolitan Graduate Students' Union (TMGSU), shall be allowed to cast one (1) secret, non-transferable ballot.
- c. The Referendum Committee shall establish and maintain a register of members of TMAPS, excluding those members who also hold membership in the Toronto Metropolitan Students' Union (TMSU) or the Toronto Metropolitan Graduate Students' Union (TMGSU), to be known as the register of electors.
- d. Each polling station shall contain either one or two voting compartments so arranged that each elector may be screened from observation and may mark a ballot without interference or interruption.
- e. In each voting compartment, there shall be a table or desk, and a suitable writing instrument.
- f. At the time set for opening a poll, one agent for each registered advocating committee may inspect each ballot box to ensure that it has not been tampered with.
- g. The deputy returning officer shall ensure that no elector is impeded or molested at or about the polling station.
- h. The deputy returning officer and poll clerk at each poll shall initial the back of each ballot before it is given to an elector.

Toronto Metropolitan Association of Part-time Students

Local 105 Canadian Federation of Students

By-laws – Amended: March 2023

- i. Each elector shall produce the elector's student card or other conclusive identification, whereupon the poll clerk shall strike the elector's name off the register of electors and give the elector a ballot paper bearing the deputy returning officer and poll clerk's initials on the back in accordance with clause 5-g.
- j. After receiving a ballot, an elector shall proceed directly to the voting compartment, mark the ballot to clearly indicate the elector's choice opposite the word "yes" or "no", fold the ballot so that the initials on the back are visible without unfolding it, and place it in the ballot box.
- k. Poll clerks shall under no circumstances instruct an elector how to vote or provide information about the referendum other than the referendum question.

10.6 Security of Ballot Boxes

- a. All ballot boxes and ballots shall be secured in a location approved by the Referendum Committee.
- b. The ballot boxes shall be sealed and not opened until counting.

10.7 Counting of Votes

- a. Immediately after the close of a poll, in the presence and full view of the agents of registered advocating committees or witnesses who are present, the deputy returning officer and poll clerk shall cause all ballot boxes to be transported to the location prescribed by the Referendum Committee for the counting of ballots.
- b. Advocating committees shall be permitted to each appoint two scrutineers to observe the counting procedure, provided that once the scrutineers have entered the count room, they may not leave the facility until completion of counting or with the consent of the Referendum Committee.
- c. As soon as reasonably possible after all ballot boxes have been transported to the location prescribed for the counting of ballots, in the presence and full view of all Referendum Committee members and the scrutineers, the Referendum Committee shall, with respect to each polling station and in the following order:
 - i. Count the number of names stricken from the register of electors, and make an entry on the line immediately below the name of the last elector on the list that states, "The number of electors who voted at this referendum in this polling station is (stating the number)", and sign the list;
 - ii. Open the ballot box and empty its contents on a table;
 - iii. Count the number of votes cast for the "yes" answer and those cast for the "no" answer to the referendum question, as well as the number of spoiled ballots, on one of the tally sheets supplied, giving full opportunity to those present to examine each ballot paper.

Toronto Metropolitan Association of Part-time Students

Local 105 Canadian Federation of Students

By-laws – Amended: March 2023

- d. In counting the votes, the Referendum Committee shall declare spoiled all ballot papers:
 - i. That have not been supplied by the Referendum Committee;
 - ii. That have not been marked with any answer to the referendum question;
 - iii. On which more than one answer to a referendum question has been marked;
 - iv. On which there is any writing or mark by which the elector could be identified.
- e. Spoiled ballots shall count towards the establishment of total voter participation but will not be considered in the calculation of a majority.
- f. Forthwith after the official addition of the votes, the Referendum Committee shall prepare a written statement showing the total number of votes cast for each of the “yes” answer and the “no” answer to each referendum question and the number of spoiled ballots. The Referendum Committee shall, at least two (2) business days but not more than five (5) business days after all polls have closed, submit that statement to the board.
- g. Upon receiving the Referendum Committee’s statement showing the votes cast in a referendum, the Board shall by resolution ratify the result of the referendum.
- h. Before the close of polling on the last day of voting, the chief agent of each registered advocating committee shall file with the Referendum Committee a true return, signed by the chief agent, showing all referendum expenses incurred by the committee for which the committee wishes to be reimbursed.
- i. The Referendum Committee shall retain all documents submitted in connection with a referendum for at least two (2) months after submitting the statement provided for in clause 10.7.f.

10.8 Grievance Procedure

- a. All alleged violations of the By-laws, policy or referendum rules shall be investigated and ruled upon by the Referendum Committee.
- b. The complaint must include the following:
 - i. The specific By-law or referendum policy that is alleged to have been violated;
 - ii. The specific campaign or individual that is alleged to be in violation;
 - iii. The specific facts which constitute the alleged violation;
 - iv. The evidence of these facts;
 - v. The name and contact information including email address and telephone

Toronto Metropolitan Association of Part-time Students

Local 105 Canadian Federation of Students

By-laws – Amended: March 2023

number for the complainant.

- c. No complaint will be considered by the Referendum Committee unless it is in writing, and is received within 24-hours of the alleged violation.
- d. Where a complaint is received and found to be complete, the Referendum Committee shall investigate the facts, and shall rule on the complaint within 24-hours thereof.
- e. Where a violation has occurred, regardless of cause or intent of the parties involved, and that violation has provided an unfair advantage to a campaign, the Referendum Committee shall assign a penalty that:
 - i. Fully counterbalances any unfair advantage gained;
 - ii. Penalises the campaign for committing a violation;
 - iii. Is of the same type or character as the advantage which was gained.
- f. Penalties available to the Referendum Committee include but are not limited to:
 - i. The confiscation or destruction of campaign materials;
 - ii. Limits, restrictions and prohibitions on any type of campaigning, for any period of time;
 - iii. Disqualification.

By-law XI: Policy of the Union

11.1 Establishment of Policy

Policy for TMAPS may be established from time to time by the Board in accordance to the following guidelines:

a. Operational Policy

Consists of policy that outlines the framework of managing the operations of TMAPS.

To adopt, amend, or rescind Operational Policy, two-thirds (2/3) of the Board must vote in favour.

b. Issues Policy

Opposes, supports and/or condones actions that a third-party carries out. An example of such policy is taking a stance on international, national and domestic issues, such as tuition fees.

To adopt, amend, or rescind Issues Policy, a majority of the Board must vote in favour.

11.2 Duration of Policy

All policy remains the policy of TMAPS until it changes, or is retracted by a vote of the same or higher authority as that which established the policy.

11.3 Policy Booklet

All policy of TMAPS shall be maintained in the Policy Booklet of TMAPS and made available on the TMAPS' website.

By-law XII: Bylaws of the Union

12.1 By-law Changes

To adopt, amend, or rescind a By-law, the following must occur:

- a. The proposed change must be recommended by the Board of Directors to the Annual General Meeting, or a Special General Meeting called with that purpose stated. At the Board of Directors' meeting, two-thirds (2/3) of the votes cast must be in favour;
- b. A Full Member and member in good standing may submit By-law amendments with due notice to the Board of Directors at least fifteen (15) business days prior to the Annual General Meeting for consideration and approval at the upcoming Annual General Meeting or Semi-Annual General Meeting;
- c. At the Annual General Meeting two-thirds (2/3) of members present must vote in favour to ratify any by-law amendment which will come in to effect upon adjournment of the meeting, unless a timeline for implementation is otherwise specified and approved by members.

12.2 Disclosure

The Union will publish and maintain an up to date version of the By-laws on TMAPS' website.

12.3 Force Majeure

In the event of force majeure, sections of the By-laws and Operations Policy related to the structure and logistics of general meetings and elections covered in Bylaw IV: General Meetings and By-law IX: Elections may be temporarily suspended by the Board of Directors.
